OPPORTUNITIES FOR SPONSORS

THIS CONFERENCE IS DESIGNED AND STRUCTURED FOR YOUR SUCCESS.

The Manufacturers' Showcase is centrally located among the various session rooms, providing a constant flow of traffic throughout each day to make sure you are successful as exhibitors and sponsors. Breaks and receptions will also take place in the heart of the showcase. Reserve an optional private meeting space for more meaningful meetings with builders, to share confidential new products, or however you wish.

"EEBA is the only organization that brings together high performance builders and innovative product manufacturers to move our industry forward on the path to net zero energy homes. Through our participation in their national summit and regional trainings, we have been introduced to hundreds of builders that are now considering or using our equipment. We especially value the manufacturer showcase suites at the summit that allow us to meet with builders in private to discuss their HVAC needs and get feedback for product development."

SUMMIT FEEDBACK

WHAT ATTENDEES HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE SUMMIT...

"The EEBA Summit in San Diego was a great conference. The enthusiasm, passion, and innovation presented by attendees was outstanding."

"This summit is one of the most important information opportunities for not only builders who are building energy efficient, net zero homes but also to builders that are trying to go in that direction. Nowhere else are you going to find a collective group of individuals as dedicated to leading the drive and changing the culture of home building!"

"The quality of the sessions was top notch. Everyone I spoke to was at the top of their field/specialty. I was amazed by the depth of knowledge of presenters and attendees, and spent the entire conference trying to absorb as much as I could."

"I have never attended an EEBA conference (16 to date) that I didn't learn something significant that I could apply immediately to my residential construction practices. And, as always, there are exceptional presenters, and product exhibitors, that share information about what's current in building science, and new product technologies."

"This is THE conference to attend and learn from the experts in high performance home construction!"

... SPECIFICALLY ABOUT UTILIZING THE PRIVATE MEETING SPACE

"Private meeting rooms were great! A good opportunity to have one-on-one time with manufacturers and our stakeholders."

"The meeting rooms allow you more of an opportunity to talk about the product and compare it to what you may be using."

"The private meeting rooms were great. I learned about new products in development."

"Highly valuable!"

"It was a much better environment to ask more detailed questions with thorough response. Ability to have their full attention as well and not just trying to gather things from an elevator pitch in the exhibitor area."
